Two Charged With Capital Murder

On June 24, 2005 San Antonio Police responded to 103 W. Grayson for a report of a shooting. When officers arrived, they discovered three individuals suffering from gunshot wounds. Found shot was Ramiro Ayala, Denise Koger and Douglas Morgan. Two suspects were described, but had fled the scene before police arrived. It was then determined that the victims were shot by the two suspects as they robbed the location. Ramiro Ayala subsequently died from his wounds while Koger and Morgan remained in critical condition.

Today, detectives with the San Antonio Homicide Unit applied for and obtained two arrest warrants charging two suspects with Capital Murder. The first suspect is currently in custody at the Bexar County Jail on unrelated charges, but the second suspect is still at large. The San Antonio Police Department is asking anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of the second suspect to please call police at 207-7635 or 207-7389.
